

JL/CH/Sixth Form/External

September 2018

Dear Student

We are pleased to send you a copy of our Sixth Form Handbook for entry in September 2019.

'A' level results were excellent again this year and we are pleased that Branston has a truly flourishing, extremely successful Sixth Form.

Key dates in the application process are now approaching and there are a number of events approaching to help you make these important decisions for the future.

Courses offered in Branston Sixth Form are available to students of all levels of ability and range from BTEC First (2 GCSE grades A*-C equivalent) to Advanced Level and BTEC National courses with many opportunities for personal, leadership and career development activities.

All the information is available on our website www.branstonca.lincs.sch.uk

Key dates in the Sixth Form application process are as follows:

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|---|--|
| 31 st October 2018 | - | Sixth Form Open Evening |
| 16 th November 2018 | - | Initial deadline for applications (for inclusion of choices in the timetable construction process) |
| January 2019 | - | Student interviews following mock examination results |

It is still possible for students to decide to apply to the Sixth Form at a later date if their priorities change or their results lead to a reconsideration of their future career path. If you wish to seek further guidance or make an appointment to look round during the day or for an individual discussion meeting then please do not hesitate to contact Mrs Anderson, Head of Sixth Form.

Yours sincerely

MRS C HEWERDINE
