Criminal convictions (Please read this section carefully)

All applicants are required to provide full details about any criminal record they may have. The successful applicant will be required to make an application to the Disclosure & Barring Services (DBS) for disclosure under the provisions of the Police Act (1977). The Academy will confirm your identity at the interview and submit the application to the DBS, paying the necessary fee. The Academy retains a copy of your DBS certificate on file.

The 1997 Police Act allows employers to obtain information about people who are being considered for appointment to positions involving work with children, vulnerable adults or other positions of trust. The post you are applying for is subject to an enhanced disclosure and you must provide details of all convictions, either in the UK or abroad. for specified offences, adult cautions for specified offences and all convictions that resulted in a custodial sentence

Under the Criminal Justice and Courts Services Act 2000 it is an offence for an individual who has been disqualified from working with children to knowingly apply for, offer to do, accept, or do any work in a "regulated position". The position you are applying for is a "regulated position".

Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

You must also inform us if you are on /Barred list, disqualified from working with children, or subject to sanctions imposed by a regulatory body, e.g. The National College of School Leaders (Formally The General Teaching Council.)

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found Gov.uk website.

Criminal records will only be taken into account for recruitment purposes when the conviction is relevant. Having an 'unspent' conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background of your offence(s). Any information disclosed will be treated sensitively and in confidence and will only be used in deciding a candidate's suitability for the post applied for.

Following the shortlisting process for this role you will be asked to complete a Self-Declaration for any criminal cautions or convictions. We will treat the information you provide as strictly confidential, and we will only take this into account when the conviction/caution is relevant.
